

In Compliance with 18 C.F.R. Part 358.4(b)(3)(ii)
Xcel Energy Position Summaries - Version 1
Officers & Directors of the Natural Gas Transmission Provider
Posted Date: April 12, 2005

The following position descriptions summarize the responsibilities of the officers and directors for WestGas Interstate Inc.:

Position	Description
Chairman of the Board	Lead the Board of Directors in the execution of its fiduciary and oversight duties.
Director	Exercise oversight function over the management of the Company in good faith, with prudent care, and in the best interests of the Company. Specific responsibilities include planning for management succession; understanding, reviewing and monitoring management.
President & CEO	Responsible for the development and execution of corporate strategies; for corporate governance; and for operational excellence that positions the Company to meet the needs of customers and shareholders.
Vice President	Responsible for the executive management and oversight of operations of the Company.
VP & Secretary	Serves as secretary to the Company's Board of Directors, committees and its subsidiaries; records proceedings of meetings and maintains official records. Serves as corporate compliance officer. Responsible for corporate policies, governance and shareholder relations.
VP & Treasurer	Responsible for executive management of financing strategy planning and implementation, cash and investment management, bank relations, investment evaluation, hazard risk management, pension management, financial analysis and related financial services and reporting.
Assistant Secretary	Supports the VP & Secretary in the discharge of her duties.
Assistant Treasurer	Supports the VP & Treasurer in the discharge of his duties.